WORLD CHAMPION

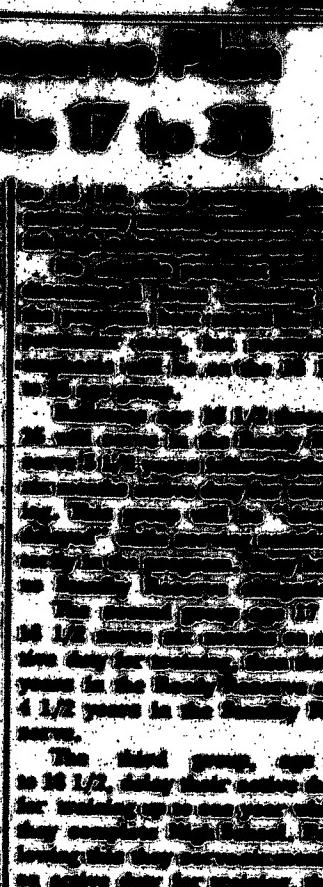

BY GENE GOODMAN
THAT's what he's called.
Arthur Godfrey has a mighty strange method of choosing the people he "discovers." For instance, Eddie Fisher had been discovered by Eddie Carter and stared on the latter's radio show for some time . . . He had a real and unique and was doing quite well when he appeared on Godfrey's "Talent Scouts" show, winning handily . . . Since then, he has been automatically dubbed "Godfrey discovery" . . . Which should have Carter.

Then there's the case of talent ad Pat Boone . . . He, too, had two gold records (including distinguished sold 1,000,000 copies) and was doing great gane when he was given a spot on the regular show . . .

He appeared before a panel of Columbus and soon moved on to Hollywood to make a movie promoting the people there had been attempting to interest him for over a year (long before Godfrey) . . . Yet there are odd storytelling appearing in recent magazines as "will Pat Boone get along without Godfrey?"
The question is—with Godfrey going without Pat Boone? ? ?

PLASTER CLOTHING
—The plaster cast is a common—indeed a solid on the beach model that there can be no excuse for any exposure of this horrific affliction . . .

Mark Morris, member of the International Plasterers' Association, claims "Hercules" and "Mephisto" should meet the boxer with the new casting, a real "waterproof" plaster good to where . . . His latest "Waterproof" is an American that doesn't stick up with a sponge foot . . .
This sticks up big . . . Rightfully wants to the current rage on the side in "Top A Toe, Top Toe."
